

PRODUCT SAFETY NOTICE:

Hoover UK built-in tumble dryer

IMPORTANT! AO has identified a safety concern with specific Hoover UK built-in tumble dryer models detailed below. The issue relates to two manufacturing variations which, when found together, could potentially result in the product catching fire when it is in use.

The appliance can continue to be used, but as a precaution it should not be left running unattended. A free repair programme is underway to ensure that all affected products are modified by an approved engineer. Please contact us if you think you may have one of the models below and have not already had a service engineer visit arranged.

Consumers can visit the dedicated webpage to check if their appliance is affected and to arrange a modification: <https://productsafety.haier.co.uk/>

AO thanks you for your cooperation
