

Bear's picnic pack

Our Bear loves nothing more than a teddy bear's picnic. So, why not invite him to one of your very own?

To make sure your picnic is paw-fect, we've put together a list of the bear necessities you'll need.

AO Bear

First things first, you need to have the star of the show – Bear!

Keep cosy

Every picnic needs a blanket. It needs to be big enough for everyone to sit on – including all your cuddly chums.

Food glorious food

Pack some snacks to keep everyone fuelled. It could be anything from burgers for bears, pizza for your pals, or fruit for your friends.

Plates for your mates

Don't forget your plates and cups – and some napkins for any mucky pups (or teddies).

Game on!

Bear-themed games are paw-some additions to any picnic. There's Teddy Says, a twist on the classic of Simon Says. Or how about Hide and Seek with Bear – just don't forget where you hide him!

Keep it clean

Nobody likes a litter bug. So be sure to take home any rubbish with you as leaving it can harm animals and wildlife. Remember, when it comes to tidying up, many paws make light work!

Now you're ready, let the best-ever teddy bear picnic begin!
